

Name: Tiffany Schank

Studio Name: Elodie's Oddities- Paint your own pottery

How long have you been in business? 5 years doing pottery, 15 years as an art studio

What products does your studio offer? Glass, ceramic, canvas, mosaic, candles, birthday parties, events, resin.

Are you mobile or have a storefront? Storefront

Have you served on any other boards? No

Have you owned any other businesses or what is your professional background? My family owns several businesses and I grew up in a small business atmosphere. I have a MLS from Fort Hays State University and teach adjunct at Southern New Hampshire University.

Why did you open or purchase PYOP? I have a strong background in arts and started following Ammie Williams. I noticed her camp guides and began offering pottery, I had a background in pottery and slip casting already. I went to convention at ccsa because Ammie was teaching, it was the virtual conference. I joined ccsa at that time and did a deep dive into pyop! I love showing people how to create and make within our studio!

What attributes do you think you would bring to the CCSA? New ideas, fresh perspective and I love to discuss art. We are from a rural farming community and have perspective on smaller communities and pottery.

How many years have you been a CCSA member? 3-4 years

Why do you want to serve on the 2024 CCSA Board of Directors? To give back to ccsa, to help others in their pottery studios. I think it would be very fulfilling to help plan events and yearly things for other ccsa members.
